

I am writing to express my opposition to the introduction of broadband over power lines. Testing has shown that BPL will have a negative impact on amateur radio, WWV, VOA, and other users of the radio spectrum. We currently have the ability to offer high speed internet access utilizing cable television, DSL, and satellite technologies.

Respectfully,

Brian Hosking